

Freedom of Information request: Reference number FOI2026/00408

Date of request: 8th April

Request:

I seek disclosure of all recorded information held by the London Fire Brigade relating to a fire safety inspection carried out at the following property:

Address: 77 Nova Road, Croydon, CR0 2TN Date of inspection: 19 January 2026 (or within a reasonable proximity of this date)

Specifically, I request:

Any fire safety inspection reports, records, or forms completed in relation to this visit.

All notes recorded by attending officers (including electronic and handwritten notes, where retained).

Any photographs, videos, or other media captured during the inspection.

Details of any deficiencies, hazards, or breaches of fire safety legislation identified.

Copies of any notices issued (including deficiency notices, enforcement notices, or informal notifications).

Any internal correspondence relating to the inspection and its findings.

Any correspondence between the London Fire Brigade and Croydon Council relating to this inspection or the property.

Response:

Our Fire Safety Department confirm that the London Fire Brigade does not hold any information relating to a fire safety inspection at this property on or around the date specified.

We do not hold any record of a visit to this property in January 2026, and no inspection reports, officer notes, photographs, correspondence, or related records have been identified.

As the information you have requested is not held, the London Fire Brigade is unable to provide the material you are seeking.

We have dealt with your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. For more information about this process please see the guidance we publish about making a request on our website:
