Response:

Please see below for a response to your request:

1. The total number of Parking Charge Notices (PCNs) or parking fines issued to operational vehicles.

Over the most recent 12-month period (between 1st April 2025 and 31st March 2026), there were a total number of 823 parking charge notices (PCNs) issued to operational vehicles.

2. Where possible, a breakdown of:

- * Private parking charge notices (issued by private parking operators)
- * Council-issued parking fines (Penalty Charge Notices)

Of the total amount of PCNs, 295 were from private parking charging notices and 528 were from Council issued fines.

3. The number of these PCNs that were:

- * Cancelled
- * Successfully appealed
- * Paid

The number of PCNs that were cancelled is 1,794, 78 fines were successfully appealed. 154 fines were successfully paid. We do not hold data on PCNs that were successfully appealed.

4. If available, an estimate of the administrative cost or staff time associated with handling these PCNs.

We do not hold information as to the administrative cost or staff time associated with handling PCNs.
